

Directed Study Application

A directed study is a coherent, well-defined, and substantive reading and research project supervised by a Questrom faculty member, usually resulting in a major written document. It offers the student an opportunity to explore in detail a carefully defined area of interest, as well as an opportunity to work under the close supervision of a faculty member.

Procedures for Directed Study Approval

- Discuss area of investigation, requirements, and evaluation criteria with the sponsoring faculty member.
- Complete this Directed Study Application, including obtaining approval signatures from the faculty member and their department chair and/or program director.
- Submit this form to questromudc@bu.edu (for undergraduate students), mbacenter@bu.edu (for MBA students), or gstmsphd@bu.edu (for Masters and PhD students). Your directed study application will be reviewed then passed to the Questrom Registrar's Office for registration.

Restrictions

- Only one directed study can be taken per semester.
- A maximum of two directed studies may be applied toward the Bachelor of Science in Business Administration degree, regardless of the number of credits that have been assigned to each.
- A directed study may not substitute for a required course or duplicate a course offered in the BU course catalog.
- Directed Studies are not intended to grant credit for internships or work experience. Students who are required to academic credit for an internship should complete the SM395: Management Internship Application process (undergraduates) or IM885 (graduate students).
- Directed Studies are academic courses for which tuition is charged and grades are assigned.
- Directed Studies cannot be taken on a pass/fail basis
